

An open letter to Israel's Prime Minister Ehud Olmert from Canada's Jewish community on the eve of the Annapolis Conference

Diaspora Jewry stands united Bring the soldiers home

Udi Goldwasser

Gilad Shalit

Eldad Regev

The Government of Israel plans to release 441 Palestinian terrorists in what is the latest round of a revolving door policy that poses serious dangers to the Jewish State.

Amongst the crimes for which these individuals were found guilty and jailed: membership in terrorist organizations, manufacturing of firearms ammunition or explosive material, aiding in the transfer of war equipment, and placing explosive material or fluid in harm's way of civilians. They were prevented from carrying out their murderous agenda only because Israel's security establishment prevented them from claiming victory.

Israel continues to make concessions, while its soldiers continue to be held by terrorists and international law is flagrantly violated. Prime Minister Olmert, we ask you to insist on the immediate and unconditional release of Israel's missing soldiers, Gilad Shalit, Ehud Goldwasser, and Eldad Regev. We urge you to heed the anguished cries of the families of these brave soldiers who are travelling the world, most recently Canada, to ask that their sons not be forgotten and that they be returned home safely. We cannot sit silently in the face of their suffering.
